STATE AND CITY OFFICIALS UNITE TO PROBE WRECK

toon, told in detail of the workings of kept him at work as an engineer know-

tunate enginer was considered a good negligent can the officers of the road

CANTOR'S PLAN TO AVERT DANGER IN THE TUNNEL

FORNES WILL TAKE WRECK UP IN ALDERMANIC BOARD.

WISKAR RELIGIOUS, BUT APT TO LOSE HIS HEAD.

tunnel as a fireman, but only twice as among his accordance under that name.

Known as Religious Man.

Ha is in the city directory as John Mr.

Wisker dreman, house No. 566 East

World reporter:

"Mr. Wiskar and his wife are hone ored members of my thurch. He is also a member of the Railway Young Men a Christian Association. Whenever his coffee. At so clock he was told the church. He is a consciention, upright prisoners for an hour's exercise. He church, but he is an honest God-fearing man. I cannot think he was to blame for the accident. Of course, there is a chance that he may nave made a mistake, but I do not see how it could have happened, as he is a careful, soher man and always is cool and collected."

Aged in a Night.

With his eyes sunken deep and his face pale and haggard, Wiskar sat on the edge of the cot in his cell at the Tombs this morning when Keeper Evers visited him.

Wiskar had on only his trousers and undershirt. He looked up in a dull, uninterested way when the keeper entered, interested way when the keeper entered.

ondershirt. He looked up in a dull, un-interested way when the keeper entered.
"How do you feel?" asked Evers.
"How had not done so.

special meeting," was suggested.
"I know I have," said Mr. Fornes.

man. He never drinks, smokes or waited for ten minutes before he left between think the world of him in our for a short time and returned again to the chirch. He is an especial favorite with the children in the church.

"Mr. Wiskar holds no office in the children with the hour was no."

"Mr. Wiskar holds no office in the children with onstrating to the jury that nothwith-standing Celine Remezy's testimony that

This consided the testimony of the

HAS KISSED MRS, OAKES

Taking the Dead and Wounded from the Wreck

DEL SOL SAYS HE NEVER

The keyhole incident was introduced by Col Baron.

Do you remember that little Paul told you he had peeped through the keyhole and seen Mr. Del Sol, at Hotel Cecil, London, Dec. 15, 1900?" he asked.

1 to not remember.

"What? And did not you tell Paul he had not seen Mr. Del Sol, but that it was Mr. Clarke?"

"No, sir."

"And didn't you whip him because he would not promise to say it was Mr.

et against her generally, specifically and by items.

Col. Bacon had taken her, in memory, over the route of her travels in England and on the continent—always with the co-respondent, Mario Del Soi, the

"No, no! I did not."

And didn't you winp him because he would not promise to say it was Mr. Clarke he saw?"

"Oh, dear, no; I did not whip him. It isn't true!"

"Didn't you send Ceime Remesy out to buy a whip?"

"No, no! I did not."

PANIC IN HOT SODA PLANT EXPLOSION.

Photograph Takerrby Worlds Staff Photographers

Boiler Burst in Nassau Street Drug Store Shattering Window and Frightening Clerks.

tion

Told you on Now 16,1900, send through you from Leinion to Liveryou were about to sail for the Bank of New Amsterdam to Mr. Del
seked
The witness tent her bronze head so that the asked Mr. Del
somically increased in 1998
The witness tent her bronze head so that she could look beyond an intervening head and gaze into Mr. Hummer's face.

Mrs. Oakes had said she borrowed the money on the chain herself at a lew eler's.

Del Sol said his own name was Abserted the series should be a series should be she should be she should be she will an an an a pistol in her hand, but her intisoand had given a fiber of her a year ago.

"As for forcing Mr. Oakes to do anyong against his will any one who will have a form and against his will any one who will have a form and will be should be formed against his will any one who will have a former of man."

At Mr. Hummel's direction, Mrs. Oakes explained that she had a force, revealing a tidy white silk waist oaken for the she waite of the head of the should not give the better, the hotero, revealing a tidy white silk waist opening up and down the back and with the hotero, revealing a tidy white silk waist opening up and down the back and with the former of the she had not to be should not give the former of the said and the she had not complicate the former of the she will be she will be she and the she had not the she had not complicate the former of the she will be she wil

"Harness? Why, I have bought se eral harnesses! What does it matter

SCHAUB GUILTY OF MURDER. Novack Man Who Killed Wife and Child Must Die.

(Special to The Evening World.)

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 9.—Henry Schaub was convicted of murder in the first degree here this afternoon for having killed his wife and two months old child.

Second relations to the second relationship in the second relationship. old child.

Secanb tried to kill himself at the time of the murder by cutting his throat. His defense was that he was crazed with drink and had no recollection of the crime.

The test of an ad is the profit herefrom. Sunday World Wants

COCHRAN LEFT

MILLIONAIRE'S WILL FILED IN YONKERS.

BIG CHARITY FUND.

wood Inn Gets Part of $10,000,000.

entrance to keep back the different bushand kept his outfortunates inferred at all during her testions, and when Justice and when Justice and when Justice and the furrymen waiting on the furrymen waiting on the furrymen, there was a doubt the outfortunates. The furrymen waiting on the furrymen waiting on the furrymen waiting on the furrymen waiting of the furrymen

Thirty thousand deliars in bonds are

E. M. Cochran.
To his gardener, Peter MacDonald, To his gardener, Peter MacDonald, is distance in it. Many times have I purattempt is made to provide for the given $5,000, and to Mary Foley and posecy stood at the rear door to test comfort of the passengers in the way this very point. Stemals—you sould of good light and good air." The following charitable bequests are have a hundred and they could not be Edward W. Davidson, attorney, said: made: Ten thousand dollars each to seen. The company must be forced to "It is criminal negligence, We are Committee.

Committee on Commerce to-day author-lzed a favorable report on Senator Nel-son's bill for the creation of an execu-tive department of the Government to be known as the Department of Com-merce.

NAMES ROUGH RIDER.

rizons Surprised by President's Appointment of Democrat. TUCSON, Ariz., Jan. 9.—The appointment by the President of Benjamin

Daniels to be United States Marshal of Arizona was received here with surrise, as Daniels is a pronounced Demo Daniels was a "Rough Rider" and was with President Roosevelt in the battle of San Juan Hill.

NEW ROCHELLE'S MASS-MEETING.

People Arise in Anger to Denounce the Railroad Company and Its Policy.

RR. Co reletive to the safety of the passengers of this company which led that dark hole? With the company Greenwood Cemetery.

"The disaster vesterday cannot be spend money they can make the tunnel Jury will indict some of the road's safe and comfortable. Put in electric officials. It was the system and not the engines, take out the division walks and man who was to blame."

plame for maintaining such a place were killed together, left five small children in poor circumstances. Resi-

George H. Flandereaux, cashier of the placed in trust for the benefit of a niece, blamed upon the unfortunate engineer. City Bank, said.

I have ridden through that tunnel almost cally for identification of $25,000 is given to his aunt, Mrs. most cally for twenty-five years, and I have found it exceedknow how impossible it is to see any ingly disagreeable and annoying. No unable here to take any legal action

CHASED POSSUM

MYSTERIOUS FIND BY BOYS defraud the German Fire Insurance AT ELIZABETH.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Jan. 9.—County Detective John Keron has been making a search for the owner of a box of 100 pieces of silverware found by some boys in a stone pile along the road just the other side of the city line, near Union. The story of the find is odd. The boys were out looking for possum when they espled one and gave chase The animal ran for a long distance over The animal ran for a long distance over field and brush, and finally sought cover order the heap of stones. The boys began to dig for the possum and came across the box of silver under the rocks. The box bore the name of Reed & Harton, the silver firm on Union Square, New York. The firm have looked at the silver and say they manufactured it, but do not know to whom it was sold.

TWO CHARGED WITH ARSON.

(Special to The Evening World.) HACKENSACK, N. J., Jan. 9.-Frank Aslyficken and Felix Coeplitke, of Lynd. hurst, were committed to the Hackensack jail to-day by Justice Heath, charged with arson and attempting to Company.

It is claimed that they set fire to their the insurance of $2,000 on it.

ANOTHER TROPICAL REVOLT.

BUENOS AYRES, Jan. 9 .- It to reported here that a revolution has broken out in Paraguay. President Aceval, of that republic, is said to be a prisoner.

According to a private despatch received in New York Wednesday, Jan. 8, from Managua, Nicaragua, a revolt recently occurred at Bogota, capital of Colombia. President Marroquin was said to have been made a prisoner, HOTEL GUEST PERISHED.

PENN YAN, N. Y., Jan. 9.-Fire last night destroyed the Hazzard, Fenner's grocery and Dolan's shoe store. William Powell, of Dundee, a guest at the hotel was burned to death. Several persons had narrow escapes from the form

